Your Privacy

Your Privacy. The MDN Plus Privacy Notice explains what information is sent when you use the Service and how we handle and share that information.

Mozilla is a global organization and our computers and service providers’ computers may be in various countries around the world, including the United States. This means that your information might be processed on servers located outside of the country where you live, and that country may have a different level of data protection regulation than yours. By giving us information, you consent to this kind of transfer of your information.

30-Day Refund Policy. The first time you subscribe to MDN Plus through Mozilla's website, if you cancel your account within the first 30 days, you may request a refund and Mozilla will refund your first subscription term. This offer only applies the first time you subscribe. This is in addition to any rights you may have under your country's consumer laws.

You May Cancel Your Subscription at Any Time

Cancellation. You may cancel your subscription to MDN Plus at any time. You can do this by clicking the "Cancel Subscription" link in any email that we send you or by going to the Paid Subscriptions section of your Mozilla account and clicking "Cancel" on your MDN Plus subscription. Updating or Ending These Terms

- Mozilla Can Update These Terms. Every once in a while, Mozilla may decide to update these Terms. We will post the updated Terms online.
